

YOUR COMPANY NAME

Module ?

Construction Management

by
Harry Sambells
Sambells Global Consulting
DATE

Objectives

The overall Objectives of the Construction Management Module is to provide the participant;

- ◆ Basics of how construction projects flow and work
- ◆ Contract administration issues
- ◆ Some survival tools and techniques
- ◆ Improve chances of a success on construction projects

Course Agenda

1. Project life cycle
2. Construction phase
3. Estimating
4. Drawings and Specifications
5. Tendering & Contracting
6. Contractual arrangements
7. Pre-construction operations

Course Agenda

9. Bonding & Insurance
10. Change management
11. Some Alternative Contract Execution approaches
12. Appendix 1: Responsibilities during construction
13. Appendix 2: Claims and disputes

This Construction Management Module is a 2 day session and includes some interactive exercises.

References

This course is based on:

- ◆ Edward R. Fisk, “Construction Project Administration” .
- ◆ Halpin D.W. and Woodhead R.W. (1998), “Construction Management”, 2nd Edition, John Wiley & Sons.
- ◆ A. Rolstadås; P.W.Hetland; G.F. Jergeas; R.E. Westney (2011) “Risk Navigation Strategies for Major Capital Projects: Beyond the Myth of Predictability”